

Anna M Helewka, RPN RN BSN MSN

Program Coordinator and Instructor
Douglas College Faculty of Health Sciences
Department of Psychiatric Nursing
Coquitlam, British Columbia, Canada

Neuman Systems Model Trustee since 2010

Areas of expertise with the NSM

- Development of Conceptual Framework and Nursing Diagnoses Taxonomy for Psychiatric Nursing Education based on the NSM for Nursing
- Development of Assessment Guidelines for the NSM Variables
- Research related to the Cultural Variable

Area of interest in providing consultations with the NSM

- Developing Conceptual Framework for Nursing Education Programs
- Use of Nursing Diagnoses Taxonomy based on NSM for Nursing
- Cultural Variable

For further information contact:

Tel. 604-777-6435

Email: helewkaa@douglascollege.ca

Selected NSM Publications

Book Chapters:

- Development of a Conceptual Framework for Psychiatric Nursing (based on the Neuman Systems Model) which included assessment tools for the client system; published in Neuman & Fawcett (2011) 5th ed. The Neuman Systems Model
- Project lead in the development of the taxonomy of psychiatric nursing diagnosis based on the Douglas College DOPN conceptual framework (adapted from the Neuman Systems Model for Nursing)—published in Neuman & Fawcett (2011) 5th ed. The Neuman Systems Model (textbook).

Selected NSM Papers Presented

- Taxonomy of Psychiatric Nursing Diagnosis; NSM Symposium (Florida, 2007).
- A Taxonomy of Psychiatric Nursing Diagnoses and the DSM-IV-TR: A Clash of Perspectives or an Indulgent Partnership; World Congress for Psychiatric Nursing (2008)
- NSM for New Users; NSM Symposium (Florida, 2007 and Las Vegas Nevada, 2009)
- Invited plenary speaker for the Neuman Systems Model for Nursing Symposium June 2011—Topic: Evidence Based Nursing Education—Reality or Created Environment.